◆ The Bueno Bueno Story ◆

We started something years ago in the Catering Kitchen of our sister restaurant down the street, Sundried Tomato, and called it "The Family Meal." This meal usually takes place in the late morning and the cuisine is almost always Mexican. We use only the freshest, highest quality ingredients available and it's always a group effort. Everything is put onto a butcher block table and whoever is around is always welcome to join in. Our vendors and sales people alike tend to come by at about this time and the food is so delicious that everyone says, "Bueno Bueno!"

Welcome to Bueno Bueno Mexican Kitchen. We hope you enjoy the food and hospitality!

Our menu items are authentically prepared by the Chef, we politely request no substitutions. Please let us know about any allergies.
